PWAP & ANYP will be throwing our charitable party on Saturday, January 1st and we'd love to have you there!

Everyone and ANYPerson is welcome - invite family, acquaintances, and anyone else you plan to spend this holiday season with – enjoy time with friends and meet new ones. The entrance fee is just $25/individual. All proceeds from your attendance will be donated directly to the Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor, www.rmh-annarbor.org, a very successful organization that has supported over 14,500 ill children all around the world by providing their families with a home near them: The families of children hospitalized at the C.S. Mott Children's Hospital of Ann Arbor are given a room at RMH-Ann Arbor for the duration of their child's hospitalized stay; statistics show that these critically ill and injured children recover 31% faster when their parents are present!

Community Party for Ronald McDonald House

“Statistics show that critically ill and injured children recover 31% faster when their parents are present, that’s why our local Ronald McDonald House is such an important part of the fabric of this community. You are able to help thousands of families across the world with this incredible resource right in our backyard. Therefore, proceeds from our next Party with a Purpose will be donated directly to the Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor,” said Josephine Nicholas, who, together with three of her siblings, has successfully founded several companies, as well as the charity event group called Party with a Purpose \(PWAP\).

ANYP/PWAP Extravaganza of 2010 will be held on Saturday, January 1st and begins at 6pm. Attractions included American, Arabic, and Latin dancing, Hors D’oeuvres, refreshments, and dinner graciously contributed by Olive Garden (on Eisenhower Rd. in Ann Arbor.) The party will be hosted at the Ann Arbor residence of the Nicholas Family. Entrance fee is $25, and all proceeds go directly to the Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor.

“Last year, we turned our After New Year’s Party into one of our Parties with a Purpose – it was such a huge success that we decided to do that again this year,” said the PWAP team. “Our local Ronald McDonald House is a very successful organization that has supported over 14,500 ill children all around the world by providing their families with a home near them: the families of children hospitalized at the C.S. Mott Children’s Hospital of Ann Arbor are given a room at RMH-Ann Arbor for the duration of their child’s hospitalized stay. Professionals, local businesses, the Arts community, children, and adults of every creed and color are all banding together for this PWAP.”

“When you change a child’s life and give their family hope, you change a community, and ultimately the world,” says Bob Ferguson, President of Ann Arbor’s Ronald McDonald House. “We’re asking everyone to join us in changing the lives of seriously ill and injured children in their community.”

Hope away from home. The time is now. To join the cause, please contact Josephine Nicholas at 734.385.6170 or josephine@icheadlines.com.
